² Stonehouse includes Haywardsfield, which was formerly extra-parochial.

³ See note (4), p. 179.

⁴ Part of Bristol, viz. the parishes of St. Mary Redcliff, St. Thomas, and The Temple, was anciently in Somerset, but has always (1801—1901) been included in Gloucestershire.

⁵ All Saints Parish includes St. Werburgh Parish, 1881—1901.

⁶ St. James, St. Paul, and St. Philip and St. Jacob Parishes are partly in the county of the city of Bristol and partly in Barton Regis hundred.
